

Brandywine Center Usage Policy/Agreement

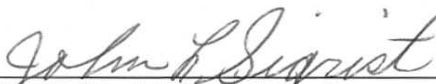

Whereas, it is the intent of Tuscarawas Soil and Water Conservation District for the Brandywine Center to be a viable part of the community, used for outreach programs such as providing education programs on conservation, natural resources and nature, as well as various workshops and functions. We must establish rules of usage.

The Brandywine Center is intended for community use by the public subject to the following rules:

- No alcoholic beverages are permitted on the premises.
- No Smoking
- Party using the facility is responsible to clean up the facility.
- In the event of any breakage or damage occurring to the facility or its contents, the party using the facility will be responsible for any damages.
- This policy will be posted at the Tuscarawas SWCD office, the Norma Johnson Center and the Brandywine Center.
- In the front door area there is a lockbox for the key to be picked up and returned. Code to the lock box will be given by the Tuscarawas SWCD office, once this policy has been signed by the user.
- This policy must be signed by user prior to usage.
- There is no charge for usage; however, we are happy to accept any donations in order to help maintain the Center.
- Failure to comply with this policy/agreement could result in legal action.

The Tuscarawas Soil and Water Conservation District is responsible for scheduling the use of the Brandywine Center. Please contact our office at (330) 339-7976 or (330) 339-5584. There may be instances when the Center may not be available due to another booking or work being done on the building, etc. (Tuscarawas Soil and Water Conservation District reserves the right to deny usage of the Center.)

This policy has been adopted by the Tuscarawas Soil and Water Conservation District Board of Supervisors on April 13-06.

John L. Sigrist, Board Chairman
